Privacy Policy

This statement is taken from the Bayview policy on how the College uses and manages personal information provided to or collected by it. The College is bound by the National Privacy Principles contained in the Commonwealth Privacy Act. The College will, from time to time, review and update this Privacy Policy to take account of new laws and technology, changes to College operations and practices, and to make sure that it remains appropriate to the changing legal environment.

The type of information that the College collects and holds includes (but is not limited to) personal information, including sensitive information, about:

- students and parents and/or guardians ('parents') before, during and after a student's enrolment at Bayview;
- job applicants, staff members, volunteers and contractors; and
- other persons who come into contact with Bayview

Information provided to Bayview

The College generally collects personal information held about an individual by way of forms filled out by parents or students, face-to-face meetings and interviews, and telephone calls. On occasions persons other than parents and students provide personal information.

In some circumstances the College may be provided with personal information about an individual from a third party, for example a report provided by a medical professional or a reference from another school.

Use of Information Provided

The College uses personal information it collects for the primary purpose of providing an education and appropriate program of instruction according to its Vision and Mission. The purposes for which the College uses personal information on students and parents include:

- to keep parents informed about matters related to their child's schooling, through correspondence, newsletters and magazines;
- day-to-day administration;
- looking after students' educational, social and medical wellbeing;
- seeking donations and marketing for the College;
- to satisfy legal obligations and allow the College to discharge its duty of care.

In some cases where the College requests personal information about a student or parent, if the information requested is not obtained, the College may not be able to enrol or continue the enrolment of the student.

If you have any concerns about our privacy policy or the way the College is dealing with your information, you are invited to visit our website, where the complete Privacy Policy for Bayview College is located.
